The Ashburton Art Gallery is a vibrant and innovative regional public art gallery serving the urban population of Ashburton and the wider Ashburton district. The Gallery was officially opened on the 16th of September 1995 and occupies the top floor of the refurbished former Ashburton County Council building, which is centrally sited behind the clock in Baring Square East gardens.

The Ashburton Art Gallery presents a varied, thought provoking and innovative programme of locally, nationally and internationally sourced exhibitions. Wherever possible the Gallery supplements its visual arts programme by presenting artists talks, education, music and performing arts events.

The Ashburton Art Gallery is currently involved in a redevelopment project which will see the Gallery double in size over the coming years allowing for much needed storage and working space as well as the addition of retail and café space. Join as a friend and support the Gallery in this exciting development which will be of great benefit to the Ashburton District community.

Admission to the Gallery is free.
